REAL ESTATE BISNOW

APRIL 20, 2010

Ben repped Marc Realty, which owned much of the 3000 River Road site in Des Plaines that was sold to the Neil Bluhm-controlled gaming company. Marc retained Ben after he negotiated lease and termination agreements of Revere Mills—a linen and towel distributor that had occupied 172k-SF of warehouse space on the site—in 2004 and again in 2009. Revere Mills will move to a 10k-SF office space in Des Plaines and a 182k-SF warehouse in Greenville, SC, allowing Midwest to break ground this week.

Ben founded Titan, an affiliate of Magellan, in 2007, after three years of working mostly on his own at Millennium Properties, with the goal of focusing heavily on each client's industry. His brokers have closed about $225M in transactions. He now has ten employees, seven in the Chicago office and three in Arizona. We snapped Dan Steinberg, Ben, Paige Winkels, Emily VanderBeek, Jared Fisher, and Marzna Brzkala outside their Aqua Tower offices.
