

Home health firm expanding in move to suburbs

Home health care company Health Resource Solutions is expanding by roughly half in a 20-mile move to the suburbs from the West Town neighborhood. HRS signed a 10-year lease for 9,620 square feet at 1806 S. Highland Ave. in west suburban Lombard, according to Titan Commercial, which represented the company. The company is to move in September, says Titan Principal Ben Rosenfield, who declines to disclose financial terms of the lease. HRS is moving from about 6,500 square feet at 1700 W. Hubbard St. in Chicago, he says. Cawley Chicago Commercial Real Estate represented the owner of the Lombard building, Naperville-based StoneCreek Properties.

